Dear BFA Investor:

Re: State v. Crotts; Grabinski; Friend; Hoover and Rolfes, CR#2001-006183

A Status Conference has been scheduled in the above-referenced case for August 4, 2004 at 9:00 a.m. before the Honorable Gregory H. Martin, Maricopa County Superior Court, Central Court Building (CCB), 11th Floor, 201 West Jefferson, Phoenix, AZ, 85003. At the Status Conference the attorneys and the court will address legal matters regarding the progress of the case.

You are not required to attend this hearing. However, you have the lawful right to be present. Please be advised it is common for court proceedings to be delayed or rescheduled for various reasons. If you plan to attend, you may want to call the Maricopa County Superior Court at (602) 506-8575 in advance to verify that the Status Conference has not been continued.

Subsequent to the Status Conference, a Trial has been scheduled for February 2, 2005 at 9:30 a.m. before the Honorable Gregory H. Martin in the same courtroom as referenced above.

If your testimony is necessary at the Trial, you will be subpoenaed by the Assistant Attorney General. A subpoena is a court order which requires you to be available to testify from the time and date on your subpoena, until such time as you are specifically excused.

It is possible that plea negotiations may begin at any time before the Trial date. If this happens, we will notify you of the plea negotiations and of the rights you are entitled to regarding plea negotiations.

The Attorney General's Office of Victim Services will continue to keep you informed of any changes or hearings in this matter. For the most up to date case information, you may check our Website at www.ag.state.az.us or call our BFA Help Line at (602) 364-1275 or if you are outside Maricopa County, 1-866-823-6577. Should you need additional assistance, our advocates can be reached via email at bfa@ag.state.az.us.

Sincerely,

Office of Victim Services
